Invitation from the Whigs of Baltimore to the Whigs of the Union.

To the Whigs of the Union.

The undersigned have been directed by the Whig City Convention of Baltimore to solicit the attendance of their fellow-Whigs from all parts of the Union at the meeting of the National Convention, on the 16th June. The invitation which they are instructed to extend is on behalf, not only of those whom they immediately represent, but of the body of the Whigs of Maryland. On memorable occasions heretofore our fellow-Whigs have honored us by assembling here in council. We are not aware have had cause to tax us with the lack of cordial welcome. If kindly intercourse and the interchange of opinions and good offices have contributed on former occasions to strengthen the bonds of good fellowship, such consequences, more than ever, must follow from them now. The thought that the Union has been in danger must make the feeling of brotherhood more warm, when brethren of all sections, in the name of the Union, are met to consult for its continued preservation.

Let our fellow-Whigs, then, from all quarters bring themselves among us. Let their delegations be numerous, enthusiastic, and confident. The inspiration of their presence will give the vigor of triumph to the first blow of the fight.

E. S. THOMAS, WM. H. TRAVERS. G. F. SABLE, L. JARRETT, JAMES C. NINDE. Committee. SAMUEL McCUBBIN. RICHARD T. MERRICK, EDWARD HICKLEY, R. B. CLARKE, SHEPPARD A. LEAKIN,

The Whig papers throughout the Union are requested to give a prominent place to this invitation as soon as received. BALTIMORE, May 31, 1852.

Excursion of the Boone Rifle Corps.

This beautiful company, which paraded through our streets yesterday, made a delightful excursion some thirty or forty miles down the river in the evening, and returned before midnight. The company was very full, pleasant, and cheerful. There were a goodly number of the fair and beautiful of our city present; the dancing was well kept up, and the best order and feeling were pre-When near the Bluffs, a mile or two below

A boat was immediately lowered and sent in pursuit of him, and he was taken up in an insensible state, nearly half a mile from the boat. He was taken aboard and into the forward cabin as soon as possible, where, by proper means, he was restored, and in an hour after was enabled to dissensations of a drowning man.

The policy of the present administration has been based on the assumption that a Union party could be moulded by means of the fusion of the two old parties. The integral character of the Democratic party, as now manifested at Baltimore, should be a sufficient answer to this, and should so far satisfy the members of the administration of their error as to induce them to desist in their erroneous purposes, and to yield a hearty support to such Whigs as have preserved crop will be very large one. their fidelity to their party. If they are just or wise, they will do this.

"I am opposed to the election of any military chieftain," said a gentleman to us the other day-"we have already had too many of them !" "Ah," we replied, "whom do you prefer to Gen. Scott ?" "Mr. Webster, of course," was the reply. "Very good, sir; but as we have already had seven lawyers, may we not object to one of them ?" We, however, object to neither a lawyer nor a soldier, and shall therefore make choice of General Scott, who is both !

A Liberal Sentiment.

When George C. Whiting, esq., the present ex cellent Democratic chief clerk of the Department of the Interior, was appointed to that high position by Secretary Stuart, the Republic of this city, the able and devoted organ of the present Cabinet, in a spirit of liberality that is eminently worthy of remembrance, stated that it considered the appointment "as creditable to the Secretary as it is honorable to himself "-that is to say, to Mr. Whiting himself!

Refractory members of the Whig and Democratic parties have often been rewarded; but we believe the practice of rewarding insubordination is not likely to prevail hereafter. We would not commend its practice to any of our friends.

Newborn Zeal.

Humphrey Marshall, a convert from the Democratic to the Whig party, and Robert G. Scott, a convert from the Whig to the Democratic party, are the men to scale the tenets of the faith of each prominent member of their present parties re-

The Southern Press of this morning says that if the position of Mr. Humphrey Marshall be sustained by the Southern Whig party generally, "the schism will indeed be broad and deep." Very likely!

We perceive that Ole Bull gives his first concert in Boston, since his return to America, tonight, assisted by Juell and the Germanians.

Wily politicians are of no use to their parties until the hour of prosperity; they are then zealous, and often reap the rewards.

Spontaneous Temperance Meeting. Yesterday evening, as soon as it was known that the Hon. Neal Dow, of Maine, Gen. Carey, of Ohio, G. H. P. Oliver, of New York, and number of other distinguished friends of temperance from the North and West were in the city, on their way to the meeting of the National Division of the Sons of Temperance, which commences in Richmond to-morrow, the friends of the cause sent out a bell-man with a placard. notifying the citizens of the holding of a meeting to receive the above-mentioned friends of the cause. This resulted in a large and enthusiastic meeting at Temperance Hall, which was addressed by Hon. Neal Dow for about an hour on the operation of the Maine law. Gen. Carey then addressed the meeting in a most eloquent speech of about half an hour. Two other delegates addressed the meeting, whose names are not recolected-one from Kentucky, the other from New Brunswick. The meeting adjourned about 11 o'clock, (apparently willing to stay much longer,) to next Sunday night at 8 o'clock. On the return of the delegates, next week, we are promised that we shall hear them fully on the Maine law.

Merchants of the Northern Liberties. We learn that the grocers and dry-goods merchants of the Northern Liberties have entered into an article of agreement binding themselves severally to close their respective places of business at the hour of 71 o'clock p. m., commencing May 21st, and continuing till October 1st. The object of these gentlemen is to allow all those in their employ to have the necessary recreation during the summer evenings. We are confident that all who have subscribed to the above agreement will hold its obligations sacred.

Industrial Congress.

The seventh annual session of this body this norning commenced at Temperance Hall, in the city of Washington.

Hon. Charles Durkee, of Wisconsin, was selected as temporary chairman, and George F. Gordon, of Pennsylvania, as secretary. The Congress then adjourned, to reassemble at o'clock this afternoon.

The Festival.

We refer to a notice in another column of the Festival in progress at Odd-Fellows' Hall, on the afternoons and evenings of the present week. It is gotten up in behalf of a good cause, and presents such attractions as have never been exceeded in this or any other city. The feast is delightful, but the entertainers are, in our opinion, the attraction ! Mr. Whitney's Concluding Entertain-

MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS

MESSES. EDITORS: Is it possible, I would ask, lumble individual as I am—is it possible, I ask again, that at this time—ay, at this late day of American republicanism—yes, I say again this late day, with the parion of any viscerus who may differ, that in the name of common sustee, and in the uncommon incilligence of a merican citizens—for one must judge from reports common in the newspapers of this city—that this metropolis of republicanism of the world is to be made a modern Delphi, as of old? And there is a certain self-constituted class—for it is none other—of Delphic oracles, who speak of the influence of one other—of Delphic oracies, who speak of the influence of se city of Washington as regards the election of its mu-cipal officers. Now, I would ask any dispassionate, intel-gent minds, in the name of all that is good and great, what fect it would have, or influence, the election of a gentle-ian to the Mayoralty of this city—John W. Maury? for he before the people. Yes, I ask again, what miraculous man to the Mayoralty of this city—John W. Maury? for he is before the people. Yes, I ask again, what miraculous power it would have over this wide-spread country? Some of our Whig brethren are awfully apprehensive of the herading forth, in case of the election of the individual above named, by the Democratic presses here and elsewhere.

"Now, I would ask, in the name of all the gods at once," what meats, intellectually or otherwise, those our good citizens of Washington feed on, that make them superior to citizens of any other portion of the Republic? There is not a doubt that it is flattering in the extreme for any of us to think that our intelligence or judgment is superior to other sections of the country; but this conjectural phantom, pennya-dimers of newspapers, or any editorials of grand triumplis of party, is preposterous as regards Mr. Maury—for he was most emphatically requested to become a candidate by citizens of Washington, without any distinction, politically, whatsoever. For it is the opinion of some, and the firm belief of others, that the interest, welfare, and proservity of our city are notidentified in keeping up strict party lines.

amy, whatseer. For its the opinion of some, and the rim belief of others, that the interest, welfare, and proserity of our city are not identified in keeping up strict party lines.

I would merely ask, who constitutes the committees of both houses on the District of Columbia in Congress, wherein Washington is the embodiment and all-concerned as regards all appropriations—I would ask, who compose those committees? Are they all Whigs? or are they all Democrate? It is generally known that it is not se, But wisely, otherwise, it is at times Whig or Democratic, as the caste of the country may be. Why, my dear friends, we should not be controlled entirely by party here in Washington. We should be as all Americans ought to be, living at the metropolis of one of the greatest countries on the face of God's carth. Now, wherein was the propriety of the meck funerai we had years ago in relation to the burial of the sub-treasury, and, I would also state, of the impropriety of the salutes given to, if I mistake not, some of the members of the Cabinet, in the way of what might be called, or was called, the baby wakers, in the way of cannoading? Also, because John Tyler thought fit to veto the bank bill, for which many Whigs think now he was right then in so doing—because he thought proper to exercise a prerogative which that great charter of the rights of humanity, the constitution of the United States, gives him—when he thought proper to exercise that right, as the President of the United States the President of the great country, where human rights and liberty are guarantied by that self-same instrument, and, by so exercising, he brought down the vengeance of his fellow-citizens, which showed itself, or was erineed, in no ways creditable to the people of Washington, in the shape of a Calithumpian serenade, with fish-horns, tin pans, and other similar instruments of discord, other than harmony;—I would ask, in the name of justice and for the sake of justice, what effect such things as these have throughout the land?

And I w

by which we live and breathe.

And it is justas necessary to the body politic of a country that there should be different castes or shades, or different phases of politicians, as it is essential to the well-being of the whole people that there should be different sects of religion; for the widely different creeds and believers are so many, that, the different churches contending for superiority, there is a spirit of rivalry springs up, which acts on the superiority of the shocks and believes.

But, in speaking of the learful amount of influence that the election of Mayor of Washington has through the country, it is not applicable to the government or people in this country at all, so much as it would apply to Paris and other sities of Europa, where the country at all, so much as it would apply to Paris and other cities of Europe, where the government city makes the government, as was the case with Robespierre, Bonaparte, Louis Philippe, Louis Napoleon, although it may be contended that human nature is the same throughout the civilized world; but it is a mistake—for you will find as much difference in the component parts of different nations as you will find in their climates, customs and habits. Some call this the progressive age. Whether it is or not, I shall not take the liberty of expression at present, but will conclude with this, that progression with some is not progression to the masses. on to the masses. A WHIG AS IS A W-H-I-G.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

As it is a matter of much importance and interest to know who has been the friend of the public schools, not in words, but in acts, the voters of Washington are invited to examine the Record of the Convention of Delegates to amend the City Charter, now in the custedy of the City Register, and open to the inspection all, and it will show the following vote: Convention of City Delegates, 8th of March, 1844, page 30 of the Record.

Mr. Lenox moved to amend the 10th section of the Charter sy striking out from the third line the words "purposes of ducation," and to insert" establishment and support of com-non schools." The amendment was adopted by yeas and in March, 1844, and previous to the passage of the bill, which was in December, 1844, constitutes the school bill, which was in December, 1944, constitutes the ninth section of our present charter.

Bys, as follows. Yeas—Messrs. Bacon, Bryan, S. Burche, Byington, Colt-nan, Davis, Force, Haliday, Lenox, Lloyd, McClelland, and Purdy—12. NAYS—Messrs. Barclay, J. H. Birch, Jos. Harbaugh, Ma-gruder, Maury, and Wilson—6. This section, thus amended, upon the motion of Mr

The voters of Washington, and the friends of the public schools, have before them the underiable evidence by whose act it was that the dollar tax was specifically dedicated to the establishment and support of a system of public schools; and by inquiring of trustees, teachers, or children, they can know if any other candidate but Mr. Lenox has ever en m by his presence.

LET JUSTICE HAVE ITS RIGHT! CITIZENS OF WASHINGTON! You will be called on in

CITIZENS OF WASHINGTON! You will be called on in a few days to cast your votes for Mayor, and every man should be cautious how he votes for his own interest. The question is now asked, if Walter Lenox has not proved himself to be the poor man's friend in every instance? He is the only man in the field for Mayor that has taken an interest in the public schools, by which every man's child can get a liberal education. He is the man that sustains the working-man in his wages. Under his administration the police system has been so reformed that the poor man is no longer chased from pillar to post by hirde spies, as formerly. He executes in person the laws against rowdyism, and, by example, stimulates the police to preserve the peace and quiet of the city. In fact, in doors and out of doors, he does his duty faithfully; and his administration of the office of the Mayoralty will not suffer in comparison with that of any of his predecessors, however active and worthy they have been. Then why change a faithful, active, intelligent, and efficient officer? Reflect before you vote!

In making the above announcement, it is deemed proper to say that a large number of citizens of all parties, from the several Wards of the city, addressed to Mr. Maury a few days ago a communication expressing their wish to present his name to his fellow-citizens as a candidate for the Mayoralty at the ensuing election, independent of all questions connected with the politics of the day, and solely in consideration of his long and useful services in the Councils, and of his fitness for the place.

THE MAYORALTY.

A S the friends of other candidates for this office are already active in their behalf, I desire to present the name of the present incumbent, WALTER LENOX, early for re-election. It is to be expected that personal preference will, to some extent, govern the choice of many, but before the community generally, honest and discerning in its decision, is not the proper question, "What is the public interest?" It must be admitted by every reflecting citizen that sudden and mealist-for change is not only united. interest?" It must be admitted by every reflecting citizen that sudden and uncalled-for change is not only unjust to the officer, but to the public interest. It takes away the personal motive and ambition which induce the faithful performance of duty, and loses to the public the benefit of official experience. If the present incumbent has discharged the duties of the office with ability and zeal, and can hereafter bring to it the advantage of practical experience, I trust that the people of Washington will not use the elective franchise to their own injury and the injustice of a public officer.

PROSPECTUS

RIGHTS OF THE PEOPLE

In the third week of June, 1852, will be com menced, in the city of Washington, a Weekly Campaign Newspaper, under the above title.

It will be devoted to the maintenance of gennine republican principles as avowed and practised by the great WHIG PARTY of the United States; to the preservation of the NATIONAL UNION, and of the RIGHTS OF THE STATES and the RIGHTS OF THE PROPLE under that Union: and in an especial manner to the election of GENERAL WINFIELD SCOTT, as the nominee of the Whig National Convention, to the Presidency of this Republic.

It will be the agreeable duty of the editor to dwell and to descant upon the merits of a man around whose brow are entwined the laurels cathered on many a victorious field. During the long period of forty years his talents, his valor, and his humanity have nobly illustrated his country's honor; and the patriotic masses, the toiling millions of our widely-extended country, will, on the seventh of November next, arise in their power and majesty to bestow their suffrages upon their honored fellow-citizen-the hero, the patriot, and sage—and to proclaim THE GRATITUDE OF A REPUBLIC!

THE RIGHTS OF THE PEOPLE will be published nce a week-from the third week of June until the third week of November-at fifty cents.

Postmasters and others acting as voluntary gents, who may send five or more names, are authorized to reserve twenty-five per cent. for their trouble, or the advantage of this deduction may be shared by all the members of a club; and for each ten subscribers, on these terms, an eleventh opy will be also sent.

The notes of all specie-paying banks, gold, silver. and letter-stamps, will be received in payment. Address,

T. C. CONNOLLY, MAY, 1852.

Washington, D. C. INDUSTRIAL CONGRESS.
